

“How To Attain Victory Over Your Trial” ~ Written By Emily Dotson

There are many that call me for prayer while they are going through trials. Therefore, I have written this short message to help those who don't know how to handle their time of testing in a way that will bring them victory and can be used to turn their situation around so that God can use the trial to work for their good, and be used for God's glory, also.

I pray that you will settle down and let God fill you with His lasting peace. He is Prince of Peace. Peace is only found in Him and through a relationship with the Lord. He feeds the Birds and clothes the Lilies of the field, and He is faithful to care for them, so He will not forget to supply your need as long when you worship Him without fretting or complaining. Then He supplies your need as you come His way, because heaven has no slump or lack.

God's economy has no shortage. Though, on earth there is lack, poverty and shortage because our nation as a whole has left the God of the 'abundant supply' out of their life, so without Him there is lack, poverty and economy failure. If we belong to God, we are not subject to this worlds system. If we worship God, He will take care of us, that is, if we trust Him and have a personal relationship with Him. But that personal relationship is required.

God supplies our need but not our wants; we may have to change our lifestyle to comply with God's plan for our life. God never promised us beds of roses, but he promised that He will be with us always. So He goes through every trial with us that we ever encounter. Its patience God wants to teach us but most are unwilling to endure a test long enough to attain a promise that God would give them had they endured the test without quitting.

It isn't economy or money that is our problem, yet for someone money can be the problem if it stands between them and God, or if it stops our personal relationship with Him. In that case, God will remove money until a closer relationship is established. Unfortunately some can't stand the test; thy ditch God and faith ends there. I pray that this is not your fate.

It is time to get serious. God is after our heart, soul-mind and affections in a far deeper relationship than we have had in the past. This is where God is trying to take us all. Therefore, if we meet His requirement He will pay our necessary expense even in time of famine. So I leave you with a confession that may help you understand what God desires.

“I Will Overcome By My Daily Confessions”

Heavenly Father, in Jesus’ Name, I pray and ask You to help me to totally surrender my life to You today, and help me to be willing to go where You desire to take me. So today I dedicate my life afresh and a new. I will daily surrender to You, because I belong to You! As I surrender my life completely to You, I become “Your” responsibility! You know what is best for me; so I will trust You and will place my life in Your Hands. I will not struggle so I will crucify my flesh nature, just as You Lord, crucified Your flesh and put it on the Cross.

Lord, I know that You want my flesh to get out of Your way, so that You can lead me the way that You want me to go. Therefore, I will lay all of my cares on Your shoulders. I will not fret or complain while You are teaching me and taking me all the way through my trials, because tribulation works patience and I need my patience tested and perfected.

Since You feed the Birds and clothe the Lilies of the fields, I will not worry about my provisions or my need. I will surrender to be taught all that I need to know, so that I can get the promise that You will bring me after I have endured my testing. “IF” I keep my faith and trust strong while I am leaning on You, and “IF” I trust You to keep Your Word, I know that You will be faithful to Your promise to provide for me just as You do for the Birds.

“Now Praise The Lord Before Victory Arrives And You Will Attain Victory”

Say:

If I don’t quit, devil, you can’t stop me; you can’t push me beyond my will, nor can you push me beyond my God given authority, because Jesus gave me power over all the power of my enemy, so that nothing can harm me, by (Luke 10:19). So, hunger, thirst, poverty, nor lack can’t kill me. God is on my side. He feeds the Birds and clothes the Lilies, so I will not worry, but I will surrender to be taught what I need to know, so that I can get the promise that the Lord will bring me after I have endured my time of testing.

Lord Jesus, "IF" I keep my faith and my trust strong - while I lean on You, and 'IF' I trust You to keep Your Word, You will do it. I will live my life in victory and have strong-faith, so that I can run faiths-race on to my victory! So Jesus, I have now transferred all my heavy cares onto You. So I can, and I will now rejoice, and shout and praise my way through my trials and testing, so I won't have to go around this mountain trail or trial 40 more years.

I feel so free now since I have laid my burdens upon You Jesus, that I can now see clearly that You want to take care of me, and that You will give me witty ideas for good success so that my life can bring You Glory! Then, You will bring me out on the other side of my trial with honor and victory, so that every situation is turned around for my good and for Your Glory! You are my Good Shepherd and I am your sheep, so I will follow my Shepherd and surrender daily to obey my Good Shepherds Voice. Now I will shout Victory even before and during my trials, and Lord, I will get victory in every situation. Amen!
