

This Article Is Dedicated To Helping All Those Who Are Serious About Rebuilding Their Health

Since I was healed of lupus 24 years ago, I want to help everyone else with health problems. The word of God was what I confessed daily to restore my mind, and my sole realm. However, it took lots of nutrition to restore and nourished my nutritionally-deficient, and sickly body. My body was so depleted from medical drugs back then, that doctors had me on because of lupus, so it took a long time to get my health restored.

So I dedicate this section of the website to helping people to restore and build their health by watching what they eat, eliminating foods preservatives, food additives, and junk foods that do not build health. Also, this website will give health tips to help you as you journey on your way to restoring your health. Also, I will give you information on some health products I took to restore my health, because our body is what we eat, whether we eat properly, or whether we eat poorly.

Our immune system is our first line of defense and if our immune system is not functioning properly, we may have abused or compromised it by eating improperly, if so, we must stop eating junk foods. If we are serious about restoring our health we must start eating raw, fresh salads, and eat one cooked meal daily by slightly steaming vegetables on low heat to keep from destroying the vitamins, as high heat kills vitamins. We need to juice carrots and vegetables that are organically grown and drink them fresh daily. This will give the enzymes that our body needs to repair and mend. I will give you a juicing recipe in another article.

You may benefit by my articles since I escaped death from lupus, and restored my sole realm, by enforcing God's Word on the enemy, plus eating nutritiously. I have stayed healthy for all these 24 years since I was healed. So, there is hope for those doctors declare terminal or hopeless cases. I say, 1st. there is no such thing as hopeless cases. This is true, because I was declared terminal and I am now healed and well.

The first nutritional juice that I now list that can help build ones immune system is a special kind of juice that boosted my immune system and helped me so much. It is: "Tahitian Noni Juice, by "Tahitian Noni International Company. Also, several other people have followed my advice and were helped health-wise, by using this special brand of Noni Juice. In fact, one person decided to switch to a less expensive brand for one year, and then, notified me she had made a mistake by switching, and she returned to the one that I use.

You can buy this juice wholesale, at the price I pay, as I will give you my (IPC ID number, which is: (160-311), so you can buy it. The toll number is: (1-800-445-2969). They drop ship this product to your home, or where you choose. I want you to buy it wholesale so you can be helped the way it helped me.

If you call my office: (336-969-4659), I can inform you of the people I personally have helped to restore their health by telling them of this special Noni Juice. Also, the company has brochures with testimonials of people this healthy juice has helped, and that also, informs you of the content value of this healthy juice. Let me know if you have any questions about this product. I wish you perfect health!
